

Everyone's Got a Story Isn't Time to Tell Yours?

Six Week Personal Narrative Writing Workshop

- Craft a short, professional essay (can become a longer memoir)
- Learn the tricks of the trade
- Develop voice, action, dialogue, interiority
- Small group setting

Leader: Susan Schaefer

Where: 8511 Germantown Avenue, Chestnut Hill
19118 at booked, woman-owned bookstore

When: Thursday nights, 7 - 9pm, April 4, 11, 18, 25/
May 2, 9/2024

Cost: $240* (*select discounts available)

To register & for more details

email: insights@lifeintrans.com

drs. Susan Schaefer, APR, taught writing and poetry at Temple University, Drexel University and Philadelphia Community College. She was co-publisher and editor of Philadelphia's South Street Star bi-weekly and is a widely published independent journalist. Her personal narratives appear in PBS' online magazine, Next Avenue, Philadelphia's Broad Street Review, and have been published in the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News, Minneapolis Star Tribune, Minnesota Good Age Magazine and the Netherlands' Crossroad Magazine.